WRIT PETITION No.24699 of 2006

ORDER:

The subject land was allegedly in occupation of fifty members of the petitioner society over a period of five to six decades. Fifteen days prior to filing of instant writ petition, the respondents inspected the land and apprehending that there are hectic efforts to dispossess its members, the petitioner society filed instant writ petition. A counter-affidavit is filed rightly pointing out that in the absence of details of the members, the various allegations cannot be adverted to. Even otherwise, if there is any threat of dispossession, individual member only can file a writ petition seeking necessary redressal. The society to whom no land was assigned or the society which is not in possession of the land cannot maintain a writ petition.

Therefore, the writ petition is dismissed giving liberty to the members of the petitioner society, if any, to seek appropriate redressal before appropriate Forum. No costs.
